SECUBE A HOME IN THE LAND OF FLOWES

One of the growing towns of the South, is situated on both sides of Savan-ah, Florida & Western Northwest : Dr. Beller, 16th and Railroad, just tweive miles from M streets; Capt. W. P. Gray 15th Jacksonville, Fla. It is high, dry pear L st.; Mrs. Pokety, M bet 12th and level, and a successful hortiand 13th sts.; Chas. Bealle, cor. 18th | cultural and truck-growing section and H sts.; Philadelphia House 348 of the State. Dinsmore can be easily reached from Jacksonville iss hour and a half drive over at escar

Dinsmore is not one of the teams ted spots that is only laid out on paper, but a thriving prosperces town that recommends itself so capitalist and laborer, to fathers and wives who are vigilant ever their own interests and the welfare of their children, to those who are seeking homes and those who have capital to invest for speculatien.

The land can be obtained at remarkably lcw figures and on terms suitable to the condition of every purchaser. At the present low figures a poor man can make regular payments on a valuable home with less than the aggregate of unnecessary expense or money actnally thrown away. It is an investment that one cannot regret and through which you will realize many times the amount invested. The prices are for Front Business Lots one acre, $65, $50, $35. Second choice, $25 $18. Third choice $15. Fourth choice $10. Fifth choice, $5. It must be remembered that these are acre lots.

We also have vegetable and truck farms laid out adjacent to Dinsmore, containing from five to sixteen acres each, which we offer for the benefit of those who wish to farm at $5 acre.

Our terms are one fourth cash and balance in one, two and three

The chain of title will be short and strong. It is from the State of Florida to the Railroad and from the Railroad to you.

Truck farming around Dinsmore would be at the door of two of the greatest markets in the South. Let every poor man if with but one dollar, commence to buy a lot in Dinsmore. The fare from Jacksonville and return is only twenty-five cents. Think of it. There are eight passenger trains per day and the round trip will only cost twenty-five cents. Trout creek, a large stream passes right through the vicinity, thus affording pure fresh water for stock, perfect drainage and abundance of fish. TAKE WARNING NOW, and do not let this grand opportunity slip you. It is the very best chance you will have to secure a good piece of valuable property and such startling prices. The merchants in Dinsmore are enjoying a good trade and the town is rapidly growing. Saw mills are convenient for securing timber to build, an I laborers who desire work can get from a dollar and a half to two dollars per day.

Illustrated Colored Newspaper.

he Freeman, the great and only Illustrated Colored Newspaper published certainly fills a long felt want in Negro Journalism. The colored people mave long needed just such a champion-s yestorial newspaper-one which will "passes them as they are" and not caricature them as is too often done by the white press. The Freeman portrays the Negro as seesgiving each week the portraits and sketches of the representative men and women or the race. Its cartoons and other litustrations are pertinent and neatly drawn. It is printed on fine tinted book paper and is 75c. for three months, $1.35 for six mos. and $2.40 for one year. This action is "Julia and Her Remoe" in particularly charming. The reader is held to the last in spell which makes him regree the end of the story.

on The Lady of I ons. By Sir E Bulwar Lytten. This is the lady as oen in the eciebrated play of the same name. It ranks as the pretilest ploture of deve-tien and sincerori expression of the "tender passion" ever placed on the stage. placed on the stage.

61. The Cricket on the Hearth. By Charles Dickens. One of the sweetest and tenderest things ever written by Tickens. All leve it for its beauty and pathes, and it will be preserved and read long after some of his most imaginative works have been forgotten.

62 Stabbed in the Dark. By E. Lynn Lytton. A strong, stirring story of the old Neapolitan days, by an anther who invents ingenious plots and handles latricate situations like a master. Pari I. 63. Part II. 64. Calderon the Courtier. By Sir E. Bul-wer Lytton. One of the best of the great author's historie stories. Full of graphic situations, quick action, and rare information.

66. She; or Adventures in the Caves of Kor. By E. Rider Haggard. This unique and popular stery is a new departure in the field of fiction. Its production has sarried the author into fame at a writer and artist. The viger and variety of the book make it especially charming; its narrative imparts a pleasant thrill as it glides through wonderful somes and startling crents. Part I. 66. Part IV. of above. 6. Buildog and Butterfly. By David Chris-tie Murray. A spicily told story of human character, yet nes a bit everdrawn. Buildogs and Butterflies are all around as.

The Coming Race, or New Utopia. By Bir h. Bulwer Lytton. A thrilling history of life among an ideal people found in the centre of the earth, where the beauties are Arcadian, the form perfect, the thought pure and motive free. A charming book; light, cheerful. Part L. Tl. Part II of above. 72. Duty Unto Death, or Life and Work of Rev. George C. Haddock, Apostic of Prohibition in the Morthwest. By his brother, John A. Haddock. The murder of this great pulpit and platform orator and eloquent temperance champion sent a thrill of horrer through the Nerthwest and entire country. The work is an ably written review of the man and his career, and contains a graphic account of his assassination. Part I. 13. Part II stabove.

74. The Trial of Pickwick. By Charles Dickens. This is the first time the entire story of the pallant Pickwick's adventures with the impressionable Mrs. Bardell has appeared in connected form. It abounds in Indicous cituations and mirth-prevoking incidents. Allan Quatermain; the latest and best nevel from the pen of the popular H. Rider Haggard. In this story of African adventure, the author surpasses the glewing descriptive vigor, startling situation and thrilling setting that made "She" such a revelation in fiction. He mere exciting romance has ever come to the surface in English literature and it must share the popularity of all his other works. Part L. 76. Part II. 71. Part III. 12. Part IV of above.

73. The Knightsht-idge Mystery. By Charles Reads. One of those ingeniously devised and thrillingly told stories which immortalized Reads. The plot is a work of art. Concesiment is the artist's game, till after winding through a forest of mysterice, the heartsi cloud bersts on the reader like an Alpine avalanche or committee and the reader like an Alpine avalanche or committee and the reader like an Alpine avalanche or committee and the reader like and Alpine avalanche or committee and the reader like and Alpine avalanche or committee and the reader like and Alpine avalanche or committee and the reader like and Alpine avalanche or committee and the reader like and Alpine avalanche or committee and the reader like and Alpine avalanche or committee and the reader like and Alpine avalanche or committee and the reader like and alpine avalanche or committee and the reader like and alpine avalanche or committee and the reader like and alpine avalanche or committee and the reader like and alpine avalanche or committee and the reader like and alpine avalanche and alpine av
